

Saturday, May 6 / Samedi 6 mai

Archaeology in Urban Settings: Hidden Histories and Connecting the Past - B

Muin Room (Hybrid)

01:00 PM	Revealing the Hidden History of the Medicine Hill Park Land, Calgary
01:20 PM	Talking Trash: Preliminary Findings from an 18th and 19th Century Double Midden Feature in Officers' Square, Fredericton, New Brunswick
01:40 PM	Working Together: Cultural resource management and municipal dam safety classification
02 :00 PM	Archaeology during Parliament's Rehabilitation
02 :20 PM	Tasting the Past: Living History, Food and Authenticity at Dundurn Castle, Hamilton, ON
02 :40 PM	From Strandlines to Beach Ridges: Using Geospatial Data to Unravel Past Land Use in Thunder Bay
03 :00 PM	Under the Ground We Walk On: Urban Archaeology in the National Capital Region
03 :20 PM	Archaeology in the City of Kamloops: Answering a Call to Action
03 :40 PM	Historic Hooves: Records and radiocarbon dates of horses (Equus) in Alberta in the late Holocene